

SCOPE
Silver hollow ware
Jennifer Vess, Intern
August 2006

CATEGORY:T&E For Materials
T&E For Communication
Communication Artifact
Personal Arifacts

CLASSIFICATION: Food Service T&E
Written communication (T&E Comm)
Ceremonial Artifact
Personal gear

SIZE: 154

DATE RANGE: circa 1650; 1730-1973/1989

MANUFACTURERS: The following list contains only those makers who have been identified. Several pieces have no makers mark or the marks are not decipherable. Other pieces have marks that have not been associated with makers. They are organized alphabetically by country of origin.

United States:

John Aitken (1785-1814, Philadelphia); L Atkinson; Barbour Brothers Co; Conrad and E. Milford Bard (1825-1850 Philadelphia); Philip Garrett (1780-1851, Philadelphia); Gorham Corp. (1883-present, Providence, RI); Hartford Sterling Company (1901-1924 Philadelphia); E. Jaccard & Company (St Louis, Missouri); Joseph Lownes (ca. 1759-1820, Philadelphia); John O Meade and son (1846-1900 Philadelphia); Meriden Britannia Co. (1852 to present, current name Wallace International, Meridan, Conn.); Middletown Plate Co. (1864-1898, Middletown, Conn.); Smith Rogers & Co. (New Haven, Conn.); Rockford Silver Co.; Sackett & Co. Lyd (1893-1903, Philadelphia); James W. Tufts (1875-1915, Boston, MA); Taylor and Lawrie (1837-1850, Philadelphia); Victor Silver Company (New England); Joseph Warner (1742-1800, Delaware); John and W.L. Ward (active 1837-1850, Philadelphia); E.C. Webster & Son, (New York City); The Wilcox Co. (Conn.); Woodside Sterling Company (ca. 1896-1920, New York City)

England

Milne & Campbell (1776-1780); George Knight